

Associates, who gave us a number of different options. They will be working the numbers and determine the total amount of project with various options. Mr. Fallon, Township Auditor is doing a rate study on the sewer in terms of financing this project. We are looking to make a match with Mr. Fallon and Mr. Samuel's numbers.

Councilman Cannon stated he went to the IBE Labor Hall, Wall to attend a labor forum with a number of heads of local unions in the area. They have some interesting information about how unions work and a pool of labor available. Entering into labor contracts and local person to come in for the day and pay prevailing wage. This may be an avenue to help DPW and get local people to work.
